

Participate in the Downtown Amherst

Eco-Hero Hunt

April 22 & 23, 2011

Enter to win
great prizes!

How to play in 3 easy steps:

- 1) Visit the participating downtown merchants (see reverse) and look for Eco-Hero posters in their front windows.
- 2) Read and take note of the steps each business is taking as Amherst makes the shift toward sustainability.
- 3) Complete the form below using the information you've learned (including name and contact info on reverse). Place it in a green collection box located at A.J. Hastings, The Toy Box, or Subway by 5:00 pm Saturday, April 23.

Prize winners will be notified on Tuesday, April 26.

Using the participant list on the reverse page, list:

Three businesses that minimize waste via composting, reusable bags, or biodegradable serving materials:

Three businesses that sell locally made products or locally grown food:

Complete contact information on the reverse side prior to entering the drawing.

Look for these Downtown Eco-Heroes!

Main Street:

Amherst Books
Black Sheep
Clawfoot Tub
Lone Wolf
Subway

South Pleasant:

A.J. Hastings
Chez Albert
Collective Copies
Laughing Dog Bikes

Amity Street:

Amherst Cinema
Amherst Coffee

North Pleasant:

Amherst Brewing Co.
Amherst Typewriter
Baku's Restaurant
Bart's Ice Cream
Blue Marble
Captain Candy

Food for Thought
Judie's
Henion Bakery
The Loose Goose
The Pub

Silverscape Designs
Souper Bowl
The Toy Box
Worlds Apart Games
Zanna

Special thanks to our generous prize donors:

Amherst Coffee, Bart's Ice Cream, Blue Marble, Captain Candy, Green Earth Computers, Hospice Shop of the Fisher Home, Judie's, The Loose Goose, Silverscape Designs, Subway, and The Toy Box

Amherst Eco-Hero Hunt Prize Drawing Entry Form

Name

Preferred method of contact (phone or email)

Prize winners will be responsible for picking up prizes from
The Amherst Department of Public Works (586 S. Pleasant Street) after notification.

Participate in the Downtown Amherst

Eco-Hero Hunt

April 22 & 23, 2011

Enter to win
great prizes!

How to play in 3 easy steps:

- 1) Visit the participating downtown merchants (see reverse) and look for Eco-Hero posters in their front windows.
- 2) Read and take note of the steps each business is taking as Amherst makes the shift toward sustainability.
- 3) Complete the form below using the information you've learned (including name and contact info on reverse). Place it in a green collection box located at A.J. Hastings, The Toy Box, or Subway by 5:00 pm Saturday, April 23.

Prize winners will be notified on Tuesday, April 26.

Using the participant list on the reverse page, list:

Three businesses that minimize waste via composting, reusable bags, or biodegradable serving materials:

Three businesses that sell locally made products or locally grown food:

Complete contact information on the reverse side prior to entering the drawing.

Look for these Downtown Eco-Heroes!

Main Street: Amherst Books Black Sheep Clawfoot Tub Lone Wolf Subway	South Pleasant: A.J. Hastings Chez Albert Collective Copies Laughing Dog Bikes	Amity Street: Amherst Cinema Amherst Coffee
North Pleasant: Amherst Brewing Co. Amherst Typewriter Baku's Restaurant Bart's Ice Cream Blue Marble Captain Candy	Food for Thought Judie's Henion Bakery The Loose Goose The Pub	Silverscape Designs Souper Bowl The Toy Box Worlds Apart Games Zanna

Special thanks to our generous prize donors:

Amherst Coffee, Bart's Ice Cream, Blue Marble, Captain Candy, Green Earth Computers, Hospice Shop of the Fisher Home, Judie's, The Loose Goose, Silverscape Designs, Subway, and The Toy Box

Amherst Eco-Hero Hunt Prize Drawing Entry Form

Name

Preferred method of contact (phone or email)

Prize winners will be responsible for picking up prizes from
The Amherst Department of Public Works (586 S. Pleasant Street) after notification.